Healthway Appoints Tan Chuan Jin as Chairman of Newly-formed Medical Advisory Board

- Advisory Board will provide guidance to management on key market trends and developments
- Other members of the Board are Dr Lily Neo and Professor Bernard Yeung

Thursday, 5 April 2018, Singapore – Leading Singapore healthcare provider Healthway Medical Corporation (“HMC”) today announced the appointment of Mr Tan Chuan Jin as Chairman of its newly-formed Medical Advisory Board (“Advisory Board”).

Mr Tan is the Speaker of Parliament and a Member of Parliament for Kembangan-Chai Chee, Marine Parade Group Representation Constituency (GRC).

Joining Mr Tan to form the Advisory Board are Dr Lily Neo, Member of Parliament for Jalan Besar GRC and Professor Bernard Yeung, Dean and Stephen Riady Distinguished Professor of Finance, Strategy & Policy at the National University of Singapore (NUS) Business School.

Together, these distinguished members will provide guidance as well as insights on key market trends to the management of HMC. The Advisory Board will also advise the management on developments in the medical field that may impact HMC or its operations.

Dr. Stephen Riady, Non-Executive Director of HMC, said, “I am honoured to welcome Speaker Tan Chuan Jin MP and the other Advisors to the newly created Advisory Board. I am confident that their guidance will not only enable the Company to be a leading healthcare provider, but also meaningfully contribute to the community. This is part of our mission to provide quality medical services and facilities that are easily accessible to patients.”

In November 2017, HMC announced a partnership with South Korea’s SK Telecom, the Seoul National University Bundang Hospital, and HealthConnect, to explore opportunities to leverage on cutting-edge information and communications technologies in healthcare applications.

Together with the formation of the Medical Advisory Board, these initiatives are part of HMC’s strategy of a patient-centric and technology-enabled approach towards healthcare.
